

“He’s took care of Anse a long time,
now.”

“I reckon He’s like everybody else
around here . . .
He’s done it so long
now He cant quit” (89).

Mrs. Bundren

5 Children

30 years of home and farm labor

Loan of two spades

Graphophone

Cash

$8

coffin

Darl

$3 job

- years of war service

Jewel

horse

$3 job

Vardaman

fish

Dewey Dell

housework

milking

cotton picking

$10

Lafe

cotton picking

Peabody

repeated medical care

loan of money to pay the hotel

Tull

help with corn harvest

help with coffin

guarantee against Peabody’s team/buggy

-not his mule at the river

Samson, Armstid, Gillespie

neighborliness